ONE NIGHT FOR ALL

Culture Night will take place on Friday 22nd September 2023, this celebrates the thirteenth year since Offaly first took part in the national Culture Night celebrations.

This year is One Night For All across Offaly as we continue to connect with and celebrate our culture together. Culture Night / Oíche Chultúir is a national moment, an annual all-island public event, brought to you by the Arts Council to celebrate diversity of culture, creativity and the arts, while promoting the belief that rich and varied culture is alive, treasured and nurtured in people's lives every day.

We invite you to come and experience One Night For All, where artists and venues will open doors and minds through a programme of FREE entertainment as part of our national celebration of arts and culture. In its thirteenth year, Offaly Culture Night offers communities, artists and venues the opportunity to connect through music, dance, visual art and much more with an eclectic range of events guaranteed to appeal to our rich and varied communities across the county. This year we are delighted to be funding five artist commissions as part of Culture Night, broadening the reach of projects that aim to connect and celebrate. Follow the arrows to plan your Culture Night trail.

BANAGHER

JJ HOUGH'S SINGING PUB: THE TWO FACES OF TOMORROW

7pm til late | JJ Hough's, Banagher

'The Two Faces of Tomorrow' is a one-night film screening and exhibition by Offaly artists Patrick Hough and Sheila Hough. The film, from which the event takes its title, is a 40-minute experimental documentary about algae; how they have shaped all life on our planet, and how they relate to the issue of Climate Change today. Accompanying the film screening will be an exhibition of new oil paintings by Sheila Hough, all created in response to film's theme. The event will also include a discussion and Q&A with the artists.

Commission funded by Offaly County Council Arts Office.
