

Offaly County Council in association with Daingean Development Association and Daingean Youth Group invite you to a

Sustainable Communities Workshop

Venue: Old School House Daingean

Date: 28th April

Time: 2.30pm

Workshop includes:

*Introductory talk on the variety of plant and animal species in your community and how you can create a wildlife friendly garden and community

*Introduction to composting a great way to divert organic waste away from landfill site and make a nutrient rich compost for flower beds

*Water conservation tips for your community and home

All Welcome