

The services we offer

Offaly County Council provides an extensive range of services which focus on the needs of the public and the improvement of the quality of life of its people. The council plays an active role in the economic, social and cultural development of the county.

Follow this link for a full list of the services and more information:

<http://www.offaly.ie/eng/Services/>