

I respectfully propose that the area known as Lemonaghan Bog be removed from the OFFALY Development Plan 2021 as an area open to consideration for wind energy .This is an area of great archaeological and historical significance in the county with links to nearby Clonmacnoise which should be further explored and developed as part of our tourism trail in OFFALY.

Cllr Noel Cribbin.